COMPASS Hires New Communication Assistant

Meridian, ID – The Community Planning Association of Southwest Idaho (COMPASS) is pleased to announce that Josie Gallup has joined COMPASS as a Communication Assistant. Gallup will work with COMPASS' internal and external communication programs, focusing on managing the agency's social media channels, creating graphics, conducting public outreach, and maintaining the agency's website.

Ms. Gallup obtained her bachelor's degree in English with a Professional and Creative Writing emphasis in 2021 from Central Washington University in Ellensburg, WA, where she co-edited the university's student magazine. Gallup also has experience in producing outreach materials, public speaking, and creating social media content.

COMPASS is the forum for regional collaboration in southwest Idaho that helps maintain a healthy and economically vibrant region, offering people choices in how and where they live, work, play, and travel. Among other programs, COMPASS conducts regional transportation planning and budgets federal transportation funding for Ada and Canyon Counties.
