COMPASS Seeks Nominations for 14th Annual Leadership in Motion Awards

Meridian, ID – The Community Planning Association of Southwest Idaho (COMPASS) is seeking nominations for its 2022 Leadership in Motion awards. The awards recognize projects, businesses, and individuals that demonstrate leadership in implementing Ada and Canyon Counties’ regional long-range transportation plan, Communities in Motion 2040 2.0.

“A quality transportation system benefits everyone,” explains COMPASS Executive Director Matt Stoll. “It not only gets us from ‘Point A’ to ‘Point B,’ but it also supports a robust economy; brings goods to our stores; provides opportunities to get fit through biking, walking, and running; and even supports those who don’t leave home by providing avenues for home deliveries.

“Now is the time to reflect on transportation or related projects or business or community leaders that have made your life better over the past year and nominate them for a COMPASS Leadership in Motion award,” continues Stoll. “Who, or what, do you think should be recognized?”

Awards will be presented in the following categories:

- Leadership in Government, Ada County and Canyon County
  - Government-sponsored projects
  - One award in each county
- Leadership in Private Business/Nonprofit
- Leadership in Practice, Professional
- Leadership in Practice, Citizen/Volunteer
- Leadership by Example, Elected/Appointed Official

This year’s awards will recognize efforts and projects that occurred between July 2021 and June 2022.

Learn more and submit your nominations online at www.compassidaho.org (follow the link to “Leadership in Motion awards”). Anyone may submit a nomination and any project, business, or person (other than COMPASS staff) within Ada and Canyon Counties is eligible to be nominated. Nominations must be received by 12:00 noon, Thursday, September 15, 2022. Awards will be presented in December.
