COMPASS Hires New Principal Planner

Meridian, ID – The Community Planning Association of Southwest Idaho (COMPASS) is pleased to announce that Austin Miller has joined COMPASS as a Principal Planner, working on long-range planning with a focus on forecasting and monitoring growth and development.

Previously, Miller worked at the Ada County Highway District in the development services department, reviewing development applications, assessing impact fees, and overseeing the 20-year Capital Improvements Plan. He holds a Bachelor of Business Administration degree from Boise State University.

COMPASS is the forum for regional collaboration in southwest Idaho that helps maintain a healthy and economically vibrant region, offering people choices in how and where they live, work, play, and travel. Among other programs, COMPASS conducts regional transportation planning and budgets federal transportation funding for Ada and Canyon Counties.
