

Leadership in Practice, Volunteer

Lisa Brady

Lisa Brady provides a strong voice for improved walking and biking policies and infrastructure throughout the State of Idaho. Her commitment to public service, mentorship, and support of communities, families, and children have been, and continue to be, instrumental in providing Ada County and Idaho with ever-safer bicycle and pedestrian transportation options.

Ms. Brady serves as the president of the Treasure Valley Cycling Alliance and volunteers her time on a variety of advisory committees including the Ada County Highway District's Bicycle Advisory Committee, COMPASS' Active Transportation Workgroup, the City of Boise's Mayor's Bike Advisory Committee, and more.

In addition, Lisa is a League of American Bicyclists certified instructor, demonstrating her knowledge of bicycle commuting, law, best practices, and effective education techniques.

Ms. Brady has been instrumental in guiding and enhancing the region's low stress bicycle network strategies and initiatives. Her volunteer work has touched hundreds of lives and has created a lasting, positive impact on the evolving planning and implementation of safer bicycle and pedestrian infrastructure in the Treasure Valley.