

Working together to plan for the future

News Release

August 7, 2024

Media Contact: Amy Luft, 208/475-2229

COMPASS Seeks Nominations for 16th Annual Leadership in Motion Awards

Meridian, ID – The Community Planning Association of Southwest Idaho (COMPASS) is seeking nominations for its 2024 Leadership in Motion awards. The awards recognize projects, businesses, nonprofits, and individuals that demonstrate leadership in implementing Ada and Canyon Counties' regional long-range transportation plan, Communities in Motion 2050.

"Through Communities in Motion 2050 we strive to develop a transportation system that supports safety, economic vitality, convenience, and quality of life," explains COMPASS Executive Director Matt Stoll. "Through our Leadership in Motion awards program, COMPASS recognizes the people, businesses, nonprofits, and projects that align with these key goals and help 'move the needle' toward achieving the Treasure Valley of the future as envisioned in the plan."

Awards will be presented in the following categories:

- Leadership in Government, Ada County and Canyon County
 - Government-sponsored projects
 - One award in each county
- Leadership in Private Business/Nonprofit
- Leadership in Practice, Professional
- Leadership in Practice, Individual/Volunteer
- Leadership by Example, Elected/Appointed Official

This year's awards will recognize efforts and projects that occurred between July 2023 and June 2024.

Learn more and submit your nominations online at <https://compassidaho.org/> (follow the link to "Leadership in Motion awards"). Anyone may submit a nomination and any project, business, or person (other than COMPASS staff) within Ada and Canyon Counties is eligible to be nominated. Nominations must be received by 12:00 noon, Friday, September 27, 2024. Awards will be presented in December.