

Working together to plan for the future

News Release

December 20, 2021

Media Contact: Amy Luft, 208/475-2229

COMPASS Announces 2021 Leadership in Motion Award Recipients

Meridian, ID – The Community Planning Association of Southwest Idaho (COMPASS) is pleased to announce the recipients of the 2021 COMPASS Leadership in Motion awards:

- Leadership by Example, Elected Official
 - Mayor Garret Nancolas, City of Caldwell
- Leadership in Practice, Professional
 - Clair Bowman, City of Nampa
- Leadership in Practice, Volunteer
 - Lisa Brady
- Leadership in Government, Ada County
 - Ada County Highway District, Livable Streets Performance Measures
- Leadership in Government, Canyon County
 - City of Nampa, Grimes Pathway Project

The Leadership in Motion awards recognize individuals and projects that demonstrate leadership in supporting Communities in Motion 2040 2.0, the regional long-range transportation plan for Ada and Canyon Counties.

“Congratulations to our 2021 Leadership in Motion recipients,” states COMPASS Executive Director Matt Stoll. “Maintaining the region’s high quality of life is something we all strive for, but it is easier said than done.

“This year’s winners have made notable contributions toward that goal and demonstrate how vision, dedication, and leadership can truly make a difference in the lives of Treasure Valley residents. Thank you for your contributions to the region, and, again, congratulations.”

Visit www.compassidaho.org to view a short presentation highlighting the award winners and learn more about each recipient.