Loeffelholz Joins COMPASS

Meridian, ID – The Community Planning Association of Southwest Idaho (COMPASS) is pleased to announce that Gus Loeffelholz has joined COMPASS as a Senior Planner. As a member of COMPASS' Planning Team, he will assist in developing the region's long-range transportation plan, Communities in Motion, as well as leading other planning projects.

Most recently, Loeffelholz served as a Community Planner at the Federal Highway Administration - Idaho Division. In past roles he also assisted in planning for Air Force installations and provided stewardship and oversight of Federal Aid highway funds for planning projects. He holds a Master of Urban and Regional Planning degree from the University of Texas at San Antonio and is a member of the American Institute of Certified Planners.

COMPASS is the forum for regional collaboration in southwest Idaho that helps maintain a healthy and economically vibrant region, offering people choices in how and where they live, work, play, and travel. Among other programs, COMPASS conducts regional transportation planning and budgets federal transportation funding for Ada and Canyon Counties.
