COMPASS Hires New Communication Assistant

Meridian, ID – The Community Planning Association of Southwest Idaho (COMPASS) is pleased to announce that Jayleen Saucedo has joined COMPASS as a Communication Assistant. Saucedo will work with COMPASS' internal and external communication programs, focusing on managing the agency's social media channels, creating graphics, and maintaining the agency website.

Saucedo is a student at the College of Idaho, working towards a Bachelor's degree in Marketing and Digital Media, with minors in Latin American Studies, Spanish, and Human Performance.

COMPASS is the forum for regional collaboration in southwest Idaho that helps maintain a healthy and economically vibrant region, offering people choices in how and where they live, work, play, and travel. Among other programs, COMPASS conducts regional transportation planning and budgets federal transportation funding for Ada and Canyon Counties.
