

Leadership by Example, Elected Official

Winner: Councilmember Elaine Clegg

Description: Elaine Clegg not only talks the talk of Communities in Motion, she walks the walk. She assumed the role of Boise City Council transportation liaison with dedication, commitment, and a constant eye on consistent decision. Elaine realizes that decisions are not made in a vacuum. Her decision making always includes a review of how any application might impact Communities in Motion. She was tireless in her efforts to include a roundabout in the 30th Street extension. She represents COMPASS on the Association of Metropolitan Planning Associations board of directors. The Boise City Council relies on her expertise, and is proud of her tireless efforts. You will never see Elaine take the easy way out. She believes in Communities in Motion and uses her decision making capacity on the council to advance Communities in Motion goals. Only with this comprehensive decision making will the region be able to realize the goals of Communities in Motion.
